Insights from Credit Professionals

Pakistan

- Use a letter of credit where possible.
- Recommend Cash in Advance, Not covered by several insurance companies, Payments tend to be very slow.

India

- Make sure all t's are crossed and i's are dotted on your contracts & that the customer fully understands to avoid future disputes
- Very slow pay, cash in advance when possible.
- We secure the credit line with a letter of credit. Keep credit limit relatively small.

Argentina

- Know your customer very well, Cash In Advance when possible, Many insurance companies do not cover this country.)

United Kingdom

- Establish good rapport with customer. Letter of credit if extending larger line of credit..
- Do your Due Diligence on your customer (5 C's of Credit need to be fully vetted) and look for any news or reviews of the customer.

Insights from Credit Professionals

Non-country-specific Advice from the survey.

- Know your real customer, not the Trade/Banner name but the True Legal Entity (5 C's of Credit).
- Start early building a relationship with your customer, and include your salesperson
- Consistent communication with your key customers is essential
- Follow up with the customer's Procurement Dept and Finance Dept as many times as necessary.
- Obtain updated credit information Look for owner and addresses verification, as changes are often not communicated by the customer. Know all you can about the customer. Pull a credit report for payment history and legal status and name verification.
- With continued global inflation, tariff war in India and high interest, you need to know your true legal customer to prevent fraud and keep your A/R secured.
- It is important to know customer's payment process to avoid misunderstandings or delays due to administrative issues.
- Obtain financial statements on your customers and backstop sales with credit insurance.
- Ensure payment language is on the wire payments received.
