Insights from Credit Professionals

Australia

- Gov't regulations slow the process
- Many clients prefer to pay by credit card for smaller orders
- Legal enforcement is strong—contracts and payment terms are generally respected

Israel

- No real issues here, we make a Private label brand for our company so we require funds up front for there specialty products.
- Know your Customer, legal entity, capacity.

Brazil

- Know your customer, Legal entity, credit capacity, operational metrics and financial health (5 C's of Credit) especially in these Turbulent Economic times.
- local collector who speaks the language & understands the culture/specific needs is essential

UAE

- Culture is very important , you need to build relationships if you expect payment on time
- Involve the Sales team early when there are issues

Insights from Credit Professionals

Non-country-specific Advice from the survey.

- Know your real customer, not the Trade/Banner name but the True Legal Entity (5 C's of Credit).
- Start early building a relationship with your customer, and include your salesperson
- Consistent communication with your key customers is essential
- Follow up with the customer's Procurement Dept and Finance Dept as many times as necessary.
- Obtain updated credit information Look for owner and addresses verification, as changes are often not communicated by the customer. Know all you can about the customer. Pull a credit report for payment history and legal status and name verification.
- With continued global inflation, tariff war in Israel and high interest, you need to know your true legal customer to prevent fraud and keep your A/R secured.
- It is important to know customer's payment process to avoid misunderstandings or delays due to administrative issues.
- Obtain financial statements on your customers and backstop sales with credit insurance.
- Ensure payment language is on the wire payments received.
